Collected Information:

Lembila Sangtam daughter of T.Tsikhase Sangtam and Nemang lives in Sangsomong village, Tuensang, Nagaland, 798616.

Lembila is well spoken, responsible and a smart lady. She is smart patient, aspiring and an optimistic person.

Bio: (Background of the Candidate)

Lembila completed her graduation from Nagaland University in the year 2020. After completing her graduation as she was looking for a Job, she came across a friend who introduced her to this training and she decided to take up this training in search of a job.

Programmatic intervention:

After she graduated, Lembila was struggling to find a job to improve the financial stability of her family since her mother is a housewife and father a farmer and also the only bread winner of the family. However, with no work experience and professional certificate she did not find any job she applied for that left her with discouragement and disappointed. Thus, she decided to opt the skills in F&B Service-Steward under DDU-GKY free training after she learned about it from her friend. After taking the training she got a job placement at Den, Bangalore as Guest Service Associate with 21,275/- salary package. She worked there for 13 months after which she got an opportunity to work at The Club Hotel, Abu Dhabi with a salary package of 34,645/-.

Before and after training:

Hailing from Sangsomong village, life for Lembila and her family was not easy. Her parents tried their best to provide for her education hoping for brighter days to come when Lembila would graduate and help the family however after graduating she could not find any job. For some time she struggled and thought she has disappointed her family and their efforts however, she saw the opportunity and took free training under DDU-GKY. She persistently tried her best and got an opportunity for international placement at Abu Dhabi through which she is helping her family back in Sangsomong Village and also looking after her niece's education.

In her own words: (Few words from the candidate)

I am very grateful to PLS Auto Shell Industries Private Limited for helping me find a job which seemed impossible. I would also like to thank MORD, the Government of India for sponsoring DDU-GKY and NSRLM – RD Dept. Government of Nagaland. Through this training I am able to help my family. Special thanks to my parents and family members who has encouraged me and supported me constantly throughout my journey.
